....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a Writ, order or direction, particularly a writ in the nature of Mandamus, declaring the action of the 1st respondent in not handing over the possession of the petitioners land in an extent of Ac.11-06 gts., in Sy.Nos.453 & 454 situated at Vutlapally (M),H/o. Kalvapally Village of Yadgaripally (M),Nalgonda dist, as per the order of the 2nd respondent in terms of section 54-A of A.P. (Telangana Area) Land Revenue Act, as totally arbitrary, illegal and violative of Art 14 &300-A of the Constitution of India and consequently direct the respondents 1 &3 to return and hand over possession of the land to the petitioners forthwith in terms of Sec.54-A of A.P. (Telangana Area) Land Revenue Act.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.S.LAXMA REDDY

Counsel for the Respondents: GP for Revenue

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

Heard both sides.

In this writ petition the only grievance of the petitioners is that the respondents are not handing over the possession of the land in question.

Though, several contentions have been urged on behalf of the petitioners in this writ petition, however, in the counter affidavit filed on behalf of the respondents sworn to by the concerned Mandal Revenue Officer it is categorically stated that the Government have already passed orders in Memo No. 65273/NSP.I(2)/93-1, dated 1.1.1994 directing re-convey of the land to the original pattedar. Consequently orders were passed by the Joint Collector, Nalgonda District in proceedings No. E3/25356/93 dated 4.11.1995 and also proceedings of Revenue Divisional Officer, Miryalaguda No.J/11008/93 dated 15.12.1995. Accordingly, the land has already been re-conveyed to the petitioners and their names were re-conveyed.

In view of the said submission, no further orders are necessary in this Writ Petition.

Accordingly, the Writ Petition is disposed of. No costs.
